Local Department.

Jay offers you a picnic this week. I. A. Whitman has on hand 100 elaborately finished monuments.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Rowland of Lawrence, have been visiting at O. W.'s. Wm. Carpenter of Decatur, aged 17 years, is in jail awaiting trial for burglary.

Interesting Easter services were held at the M. E. church last Sunday at 5 o'clock p. m.

Harm Johnson and his family have been removed from this village to Shelby, in this state. Saturday was a pleasant day and the streets were thronged with teams and with people.

Notice Avery's new ad. and see how very cheap you can buy your wife a new silk dress.

Randall, the baker, carries his hand in a sling. Finger jammed off by a window weight.

Dr. Mason, who has been stopping in Paw Paw, contemplates removing his office to Pine Grove.

There are six men in jail; five to be disposed of the present term of court, and one serving sentence.

John Sirrine has gone to Mandan, Dak. He has his old situation in the employ of the N. P. R. R. Co.

Our Catholic friends had a social party at the opera house, last Monday evening. An excellent time is reported.

The Easter concert at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening was fine and was greeted by a large audience.

K. W. Noyes has secured the services of Will C. Mosier for the ensuing year. Will is one of the liveliest clerks in Paw Paw.

George Roberts of this village, has gone with Burr's show, as a barber. He has the exclusive right of doing the show barbering.

Wm. Mickerson has gone to the state of New York. He intends to locate just across the river from Albany. His family will follow him soon.

Married, Thursday evening, April 10th, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Elder T. Brooks, Mr. Chas. H. Wicks to Miss Mary E. Chapman.

The Sunday school Easter concert at the Free Baptist church last Sunday morning drew a full house. It was very interesting and well conducted.

Sheriff Galligan of Kalamazoo, came over and took H. W. McCabe's fine chestnut gelding with him. Hank says they won't let him keep a good horse.

The friends of Elder and Mrs. Brooks, and their name is legion—gave them a surprise last Friday evening, that being their 43d wedding anniversary. A large number of people were present, the Elder was in his happiest humor, and everybody enjoyed themselves to the utmost.

T. H. Nicholids is building a couple of very nice buggies.

Mercury at 70 one day, warm rain all the next, and a snow storm the third day, is what the weather clerk has been doing for us.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown returned from their winter's sojourn in the "land of flowers" last Thursday. Jesse says he enjoyed his stay in the south very much indeed.

Jay Sherman writes from Lansing that it is a boy this time; born last Monday. Mother and child doing well and the father as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

A lady—Mrs. Streator—now living in Antwerp, lost her husband a few weeks since. He was a member of a lodge of A. O. U. W., in California and a few days since the widow received from his lodge a check for $2,000. This order pays all losses with commendable promptness.

K. W. Noyes Esq., has purchased the stock of drugs, groceries, etc., formerly owned by the firm of Duncombe, Stearns & Co. We are glad Kirk has bought this business. He is thoroughly familiar with it and can make more of it than any other person could expect to make. Observe his advertisement in another column.

Mr. H. W. Danton has been spending a few days in this town, looking after the interests of the A. O. U. W. His labors have resulted in the addition of several new members to the Lodge here. There is no society in existence that affords more reliable and economical insurance than the A. O. U. W. Each of its members is insured for the sum of $2,000.

The "Governor" alias the "Kid" knows what boys stole his eggs and at what store they sold them. He thinks he can stand past losses, but proposes to make things warm for the lads if the offense is repeated. Boys, robbing henroosts is stealing, and the lad who does it is a thief, and is taking steps in the direction of the state's prison. Don't do so any more.

We invite the attention of our readers to a communication from "Shade Tree" published in another column. The suggestions therein contained are timely, and should they induce the planting of a single tree which, otherwise would have been neglected, the object of the writer will, in a measure, have been attained. Let all men observe "Arbor Day," that future generations may rise up and call them blessed.

Judge Mills has instructed County Clerk Heath to communicate with the supervisor of each township in the county, with a view of ascertaining the preference of the board as to what jail shall be favored with keeping Van Buren's prisoners; whether they shall be sent to Berrien or Kalamazoo. The extra expense of boarding out our prisoners will soon use up the sum of $8,000 asked of the people, for a new jail.

The cosmopolitan character of our American magazines has never been better illustrated than in the announcements of the May Northerner. Certainly American topics, authors, and artists are thoroughly represented, but there will be also papers on English, French and German subjects, written by Englishmen, Frenchmen, and Germans, and illustrated by English and French artists. William Black, William Sharp, Alfred Parsons, A. F. Jaccary, and Dr. Morris Busch are among the contributors in question. Yet Northerner's is commonly counted the most American of our magazines.

An adjourned meeting was held at the town hall last Monday evening, for the purpose of organizing a sportsmen's club. Quite a number were present and an organization was perfected by the election of the following officers: C. C. Engle, president; O. W. Rowland, vice-president; E. H. Lindsey, secretary; J. W. Free, treasurer. It was decided to name the organization, "The Paw Paw Game and Fish Protective Association," one of its main objects being the enforcement of the game and fish laws of the state. A committee consisting of Messrs. A. W. Showerman, E. H. Lindsey and O. W. Rowland was appointed to prepare a constitution and by-laws and the meeting adjourned until Monday evening, April 29th.

The Allegan Journal and Tribune, phoenix like, has arisen from its ashes, and comes to us in an entire new form and dress. Its publishers in its last issue say: "Only a few brief weeks ago our paper entered upon its 29th volume, free from all financial obligations, possessing one of the largest and best equipped printing offices in the state, variously estimated at from $6,000 to $8,000. But the disastrous conflagration of March 12th carried off this fine office and one of the finest editorial libraries in the state, and left us at the mercy of the insurance companies with something less than $3,000 with which to start again. Notwithstanding the great disaster which befell our village on that ill-starred day in March, we are once more on our feet and beginning to recover from the great losses we suffered." We are pleased to see that the Journal is again "on its feet." It is one of the best papers in the state and we hope to see it flourish and prosper. Bro. Don, here is our [?]

Astonished. And most completely so, by the sudden and unexpected raid made upon our home last Friday evening, by many friends and neighbors.

Bowing before majesty of numbers, the company took entire possession of everything, and soon deft hands had spread the table with everything toothsome and excellent for dyspepsia, and "all went merry as a marriage bell." Thanks, sincere thanks, to many loving hands and ready workers that added another red letter day to the lives of T. and H. M. Brooks.

The Village Fathers. A regular meeting of the village council was held at Town Hall last Thursday evening. The following bills were allowed: C. R. Avery for oil, $7.41, Jas. Davey assessor, $30, and J. W. Free, assessor, $30. Trustee Mason moved that the petition in reference to liquor dealer's bonds be taken from the table, which motion prevailed. A motion to fix the bonds at the sum of $6,000, was lost by a tie vote. Trustee Showerman moved that such bonds be placed at $1,500 which motion was adopted by a unanimous vote. On motion of trustee Obock druggist's bonds were fixed as heretofore at the sum of $1,000. Four sealed proposals were received for doing the janitor work, lighting street lamps, etc., ranging from $250 to $312. The bid of the present janitor, J. P. Buskirk was accepted at the sum of $258. The assessment roll was accepted. On motion of trustee Longwell the rate of taxation was fixed at two mills on the dollar. Board adjourned for two weeks.
